Dear Harold: At 10:30 last night my sister Jinny phoned to say that you were on TV & I dashed upstairs to the tube. (Harriet was out).

I know nothing about the Thing at issue. What I do know is that you are a splendid public performer. As objective as I can be, I judge that you had the better by far of the argument. Such aplomb! Such disregard of cameras or onlookers! Your interlocutor put on a show, that being his business. You had something to say & brushing aside his 3rd degree stage-manner, said it & cogently.

Harriet is sorry she missed the fun of seeing you in action & we both send you & Lil our embraces.

Joe
